6th Annual International Languages Expo For Youth

ASU Preparatory Academy, Phoenix
Saturday, April 14, 2012 10 am - 1 pm

The International School of Arizona and ASU Preparatory Academy invite you to participate in the 6th Annual International Languages Expo For Youth. This multicultural and educational event is designed to promote early second language learning, community awareness and tolerance of diverse cultural groups around the world and in our local community. Community members will connect through activities focused on the appreciation of languages while celebrating Valley children’s accomplishments. This event will also provide residents of the Phoenix metro area the opportunity to find out about children’s foreign language programs across the Valley.

The event is free and open to the public. Children who would like to learn a second language or who are already learning multiple languages can showcase their accomplishments by reciting a poem or rhyme to the audience. Children who are participating in the poetry/rhyme reading program will receive a certificate of participation. Cultural, educational or business entities that would like to have an information booth highlighting their language programs available to children can reserve a space for $150 by April 1, 2012.
